<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To enhance students' learning motivation To motivate students to strive for continuous self-improvement Students will take notes during lessons. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> More positive reinforcement will be given to encourage students to strive for excellence. Students should have pre-lesson preparation, note taking during lesson and note making after lessons. Four lessons on 'Learning style and note making' would be conducted for F.1 students in late August 2018. Students are encouraged to set goals for their academic performance. After tests/examinations, students are encouraged to reflect on their performance in different subjects. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 90% Students will take notes during lessons. Most of them will also make notes which help their learning. 70% students will do the pre-lesson preparations which help them to take part actively in the learning activities in the classroom. Results of questionnaire surveys on 'effectiveness of teaching and learning' & 'self-directed learning' show improvement in 2018-19. 	Questionnaire surveys Records and meetings Teachers' observation	Li MS LGC Li MS LGC Li MS
